

Mood Libs!

Fill in the paragraph by coming up with a word for the phrase in parenthesis below!

Example:

1. Sally is a smart, lively, and creative student at (Person A name) (positive adjective) (positive adjective) (positive adjective)

South County HS. She has many friends, is involved in the debate club, and (Name of HS) (He/She/They) (activity)

loves to play tennis. However, Sally often feels lonely and that she (activity) (Name) (He/She/They) cannot fully connect with the people around her. Sally should turn to (noun) (him/her/their) (Person A name)

her counselor for help because she is a great listener and gives excellent advice.
(Person) (reason for calling that person)

2. _____ has had a _____ week at school full of _____,
(Person B name) (negative adjective) (Insert challenging activity)

_____, and _____. _____ feel(s) _____ and _____ (challenging activity) (challenging activity) (He/She/They) (negative adjective) (negative adjective)

because _____ has been stuck at home all day. _____ has worked _____ (he/she/they) (Person B name) (adverb)

this week and wants to go out and do something _____. _____
(positive adjective) (Person B name) should call _____ because _____.

(Person) (reason for calling that person)

3. _____ is a _____ and _____, student at _____.
(Person C name) (positive adjective) (positive adjective) (High school name) _____ has a core friend group of three people _____, _____, and _____ (Name) (Name of friend) (Name of friend)

_____. The core friend group, nicknamed _____ has a blast together.
(Name of friend) (creative nickname)

However, the friend group does not talk about much more than sports and music

taste, and _____ is starting to feel _____ that he doesn't have other people (Person C name) (negative emotion)

to hang out with. _____ should talk to _____ because _____ (Person C name) (Person) (reason)

_____.

4. _____ has been feeling _____, _____, and _____ lately.
(Person D name) (negative emotion) (negative emotion)(negative emotion)

_____ family has been having _____, and it is starting to take a toll on (His/Her/Their) (insert problem)

_____. _____ needs something to _____ mental state. _____
(Person D name) (He/She/They) (positive function) (Person D name)

should talk to _____ because _____.
(person) (reason for talking to that person)

5. _____ just recently experienced _____ and is extremely _____.
(Person E name) (emotional trauma) (negative adjective)

Because of this, _____ hasn't gone out much this week. However, this _____,
(He/She/They) (day of week)

_____ would really like to go out and have a good _____. _____ should (Person E name) (desirable activity) (Person E name)

call up _____ because _____.
(Person) (reason for calling that person)